Mountain School Hit Hard By Hurricane

Past the main road that runs south to Ti-Goave and far up into the mountains lie the remnants of the Delatte School building. One wall remains standing with a scrap of tin roofing. The morning is beautiful and school continues in the building. It will suffice for a while, but soon the rains will come and classes will be disrupted.

Hurricane Matthew left a lot of damage in its wake. Gardens were destroyed and trees lost their fruit. Crops will be replanted, but it will take time for the trees to begin producing fruit again. Hurricanes are common in Haiti but never easy to recover.

In January, Mission To Haiti took a small medical team into this mountain village to help families in need. John Younge (left) and the other team members spent time with people who rarely see a doctor. Most of Haiti's population still lives in the backcountry. Pastor Bruceley came to this village to evangelize the people of this remote community. One of the best things we can do to help his efforts is to sponsor children at the school. Christian education is a powerful influence in winning children and families to Christ.

Our goal is to make Christian education available to as many children as possible. We work with pastors and principals to identify children who need help, but it is sponsors who make the difference! More than 50,000 children will die this year in Haiti from malnutrition and contaminated water. Sponsored children have the opportunity to excel in mind, body and spirit!

Rachael Healy (left) visited Haiti with the January Mission Team. Rachael is holding one of the children who benefits from your prayers and support.

Please keep the Delatte school in your prayers. We need a team who can rebuild this school. We will have to raise the funds and bring a group of skilled people to complete the project. Let us know if the Lord is calling you to do this work!

Food Distributed In January

We distributed food to families who came to the clinics at Ti-Goave and Delatte. In Galatians 2:10, Paul and his ministry team were encouraged to "remember the poor." Often in Haiti, the Gospel comes with a helping hand. You can provide food for 100 families for $2,500.

Evening Of Vision A Great Success

Chelsea Nealey manned the Sponsorship table. We sponsored eleven children at the Evening of Vision!

We want to thank everyone who came out and supported our Evening of Vision event in Plantation, Florida. We had 150 in attendance. Some came from Iowa, Ohio and Kentucky to be a part of this amazing evening. We had almost 100 items in the silent auction, and we sponsored eleven children! It was a wonderful opportunity to profile the ministry in Haiti. Thank you for making this event a great success!
