Message From The Director Bill Nealey Jr.

Sherril and I and our family want to wish you a very Happy New Year as we begin 2016. We finished 2015 in a special way. Our daughter Aubrey and son-in-law Vinnie made us new grandparents! Sherril and I are excited to welcome the newest addition to our family, Caleb Jennings. He was born on December 11, and he has quickly become the joy of our life.

Looking at Caleb reminds me of Jesus who came to us in a precious way. Jesus brought us all incredible joy. He is the fulfillment of the things we needed the most, forgiveness and salvation. For that we are truly grateful.

Life is precious. It is a gift from God. The lives of the children whom we serve in Haiti are the gift that God has given Mission To Haiti. God has given us the duty to reach out to these children with the incredible message that God loves them and values their lives. When you pray and give financially, you complete that connection. You become partners with us, serving the Lord and serving these precious children. Thank you for your faithfulness to this ministry.

Serving Together In Him,

The Nealeys

Partnership In Missions

Teaching Young People How To Sew

In November, Kim Harms and her mom, Jan Nelson, came to Haiti to work with ladies from our vocational school at Beudet. They had a wonderful week teaching them new skills which they can use to earn a living.

Equipping young people to become self-sufficient is a goal of Mission To Haiti. Our two vocational schools need new funding. It costs $250 a month to fund each school. Would you be willing to help these young people learn a life-long skill?

Equipping Pastors In The Work Of The Lord

In November, Dr. Doty Murphy and Dr. Dow Pursley came to Haiti to hold conferences for pastors and their wives. The conferences were held at the Ti Goave and Guedon churches.

The theme centered on relational issues and resolving conflicts from a biblical perspective. The sessions were well received by the pastors and their wives. Personal conflicts is an issue that pastors have to deal with in the Haitian churches. Most new converts come from a voodoo background. It is only when people are saved through faith in Jesus Christ that genuine healing can begin.

Thank You For Giving In 2015

Thank you for bringing your sponsorship payments up to date. Thank you also for your special offerings. They were a great help. You should receive your giving statement for 2015 soon. Please let us know if you have any questions.
